Ludwig Wright is an Anglo-German songwriter, singer and guitarist. Having released three albums as a solo artist, he tours regularly through Germany and started writing songs with other songwriters when he moved to Berlin in March 2022. Having lived in the UK and Germany and growing up bilingual he's a native speaker in both English and German. His main experience lies in the singer-songwriter approach to writing songs, guitar in hand finetuning lines until they're right.

Worked with

Freya Arde (German film composer and musician) on the song "Step Ahead" for the movie "Das Fliegende Klassenzimmer" (2023), The Lake and the Wolf (formerly Joseph Meyers - German folk singer-songwriter), Micki Meuser (German producer, songwriter and film composer), Dom Friquot (Canadian songwriter and singer), Markus Norwin Rummel (German producer and songwriter) and Henriette (German songwriter).
